Provide High Quality Education for a Diverse Student Population

---

- Among Students Enrolled for Credit:
  - 67% attend part-time
  - 62% are women
  - 39% are non-white

- The average student is 28 years of age

Source: Maryland Higher Education Commission Enrollment Information System

Contribute to Maryland's Economic Health

---

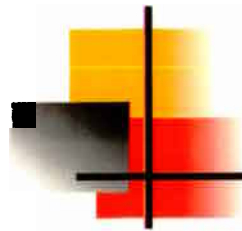

- Provide over 450 job training programs to eligible youth, adults and dislocated workers through the Federal Workforce Investment Act (WIA)
- Continue to expand course offerings, especially in areas of high employer demand (short-term computer training)
- 41% increase in noncredit continuing education enrollments from FY 1997 to FY 2001

Enrollments in Continuing Education Courses Offered by Community Colleges

Provide Access to Postsecondary Education

- Strengthen transfer and articulation agreements to provide access to baccalaureate programs
- Develop a seamless transfer from community college into four-year public or private teacher education program through the Associate of Arts in Teaching (A.A.T.)

Currently, eight community colleges have approved the A.A.T.

Anne Arundel C.C.
Carroll C.C.
C.C. Baltimore County
Frederick C.C.

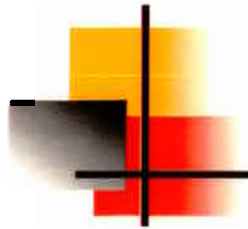

Howard C.C.
Montgomery College
Prince George's C.C.
Wor-Wic C.C.

Use Information Technology to Improve Learning and Enhance Access

---

- All of Maryland's Community Colleges participate in MarylandOnline which provides a Web portal to certificate and degree programs through distance learning
  - Provides access to courses offered across the State
- Community colleges acquire technology through the Innovative Partnership for Technology Program

Recognize the Importance of Accountability

- Community Colleges established an accountability model that provides a set of “mission/mandate driven” performance measures
- Indicators center around six categories
  - Accessibility and affordability
  - Learner-centered focus for student success
  - Diversity
  - Support of regional economic and workforce development
  - Effective use of public funding
  - Community outreach and service

Recognize the Importance of Accountability (continued)

- Recent reports describe actions initiated to achieve benchmarks for each indicator
- Colleges continue to improve
  - Accessibility and affordability
  - Student success
  - Diversity

- Colleges engage in extensive outreach efforts with businesses, schools, and community organizations
  - Anne Arundel Community College received national recognition for Northrup Grumman Training Project, over 28,000 enrollments
  - Technical Innovation Center at Hagerstown Community College is a full service incubator that offers facilities and services to entrepreneurs, start-up manufacturers, and technology-oriented firms in their first years
  - Wor-Wic Community College has partnered with local manufacturers to identify employer issues of concern
  - Allegany College of Maryland developed an Early College Awareness Program
  - Montgomery College devised a process to track Tech Prep high school students and offer early assessment
  - Baltimore City Community College became a partner in the Greater Northwest Community Coalition, which works on revitalization efforts
